C. H. FLATO.

Mr. I. W. Griffith is carrying the war into Spain. While the Flatonia boys were invading Shiner last Sunday, he stole a march on them, and slipped into Flatonia. Ike can be depended on to "get there."

Lonie Wagner, Max Wolters, E. L. Herdler, Aug. Stephan, G. A. Pannewitz, E. J. Wangemann and Fred Luck are all off to the Guadalupe on a fishing trip. The finny tribe will surrender unconditionally when these raiders cast their lines.

Gus Eschenburg steps high and has a smile for everybody; cause—arrival of a ten pound girl baby at his house last Wednesday. On account of increased expense in the family, Gus will sell furniture cheaper than ever now.

The train robbers who blew open the express company's safe at Stanton, on the Texas & Pacific railroad, are said to have secured $30,000 in cash and $20,000 in money orders. Officers are now on their trail, and are following them into New Mexico.

A gay party of twenty-six young ladies and gentlemen went driving last Friday night to Welhausen's grove, to celebrate the surrender of Santiago. After reaching the grove an assault was made upon a large lot of watermelons, which were totally demolished.

There has been considerable moving going on in Shiner during the past week. Mr. Henry Schurbohm moved to Hallettsville. Mr. Ben Welhausen moved to the house vacated by Mr. Schurbohm, and Mr. F. Berchenhoff will occupy the latter place, which he purchased from Mr. C. H. Flato.

The impression seems to be getting abroad that there are quite a number of Germans in Shiner whose sympathies are largely with the Spaniards and the Fatherland. This is a mistake, they have as much patriotism as the average American. There are a few disgruntled ones, a very few, who are not worthy of notice.

The trustees of the Hallettsville Graded school have re-elected the 1897 faculty, which is as follows: C. A. Peterson, principal; Misses Mary Lomax, Bertie Searey and Adelaide Bagby. The patrons of the school are well pleased with the progress made by the children and the re-election of the old faculty will give general satisfaction.—Hallettsville Herald.

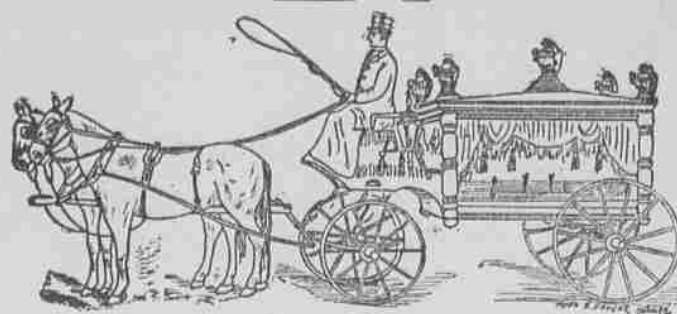

L. H. Ware was up from the country below Hope Monday greatly exercised over the boll weevil's depredation on his cotton. Mr. Ware has sixty-five acres of the finest cotton in the county, but the weevils are playing havoc with it. We advised him to use the government's official remedy, and he promised to do so at once and report to us the result.—Hallettsville Herald.

Miss Mamie Welhausen met with quite a severe accident last Thursday while out driving. Her horse became frightened by something falling from the buggy, and started to run, the buggy was turned over, and Miss Mamie's clothes were caught in the wheel and she was dragged quite a distance, and sustained some very severe bruises. We are glad to state, however, that her injuries were not serious, and she will soon recover.

Monday a complaint was made to County Attorney Blakeslee by a party residing near here that at some time previous, three men, who also reside near here, had committed a nameless crime on the person of a young woman. It is said that the cases will come up in the county court. The penalties governing such cases is said to be a fine from $25 to $1000 and several months in jail. In reality if they are guilty this trio ought to be hung.—Moulton Enterprise.

A few days ago 1080 army mules were shipped from St. Louis to Washington and when they were unloaded at once 1080 mules snuffed the ground, laid down and wallowed.
